Carol resigned as an officer and will not be available as a volunteer until after the first of the year. We are looking for to fill the position. Dave has a replacement in mind. Alex Dorr was then voted in for the position of Field Operations Lieutenant. Dave reviewed the performance of the team at the latest call-out. Thanks to everyone that showed up. There was a discussion about issuing radios to the team as a result. We will continue as is for now. Next time we will work on following our teams' procedures. Dave will follow up with Jud about working with CERT. There is a meeting about the Golf Tournament coming up. Transfer of the Finance Officer duties has not occurred yet, but it will be done in the future.

Reports of Officers

Deputy Chief / Training Captain

Classes resume next Monday with Medical Ops II. The final exercise will be on July 13th. Vance reviewed a list of team members. A few are not vetted. At the last meeting it was stated that we had thirty-five members. Seven people are chain saw certified.
